1. [REDACTED] was in to talk with me about [REDACTED], an ex-employee. Senator Smather's office was interested in employing Miss [REDACTED] and inquired of us whether she was 100 per cent okay, etc. Apparently [REDACTED] had told the Senator's office that she left CIA because an expected overseas assignment did not materialize. The facts are that she was on provisional clearance and was disapproved by our Medical Staff. I told George that I thought he should be frank with the Senator's office, but at the same time he should not disclose the details of our medical findings.

2. Jack Earman and I visited with [REDACTED], who expects to retire on 20 November. I later asked Emmett Echols to wrap up in a neat package all of the things we need to do to effect [REDACTED]'s retirement on schedule and in an orderly way. I told him that someone should probably go out to Stan's house to do this on 20 November.

3. I talked to Jack Earman about the TSD audit report about which John [REDACTED] telephoned me yesterday. Jack said that he was going to provide copies of this report to both the Deputy Director (Support) and the Office of Logistics.

4. I arranged for the Office of Logistics to brief Mr. Kirkpatrick in the DD/S Conference Room at 1530 hours on Wednesday, 13 November, on incentive type contracting. We have also invited the General Counsel, the Inspector General, Chief, Audit Staff, and the Comptroller.

5. I agreed to have lunch with [REDACTED] on 18 November.

6. Emmett Echols was in to see me about a reporter who, stimulated by yesterday's New York Herald Tribune article, had gone to [REDACTED] Street to see what he could find out. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] was not too happy about the way [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] handled the situation. I discussed it with [REDACTED] however, and we agreed that, if the reporter should return tomorrow according to plan to pick up a copy of our new brochure, [REDACTED] should merely tell him that he is not authorized to answer any further questions and that he should get in touch with [REDACTED] office.
